

1. Malala's strong conviction

► Malala makes a list of all her .....

- |                                                 |                                                  |
|-------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> (to) drive a car       | <input type="checkbox"/> (to) talk               |
| <input type="checkbox"/> (to) read books        | <input type="checkbox"/> (to) get married        |
| <input type="checkbox"/> (to) dance             | <input type="checkbox"/> (to) travel             |
| <input type="checkbox"/> to have a smartphone   | <input type="checkbox"/> (to) go to (the) market |
| <input type="checkbox"/> (to have an) education | <input type="checkbox"/> (to) speak up           |
| <input type="checkbox"/> (to) sing              | <input type="checkbox"/> (to) play               |

► Malala's reputation

Malala has become the ..... for ..... around the .....

2. The beginning of Malala's story

- It all began in  2009 ...as she was a schoolgirl in...  Afghanistan.
 2011  Iran.
 2017  Pakistan.
- She was concerned about  the future of her nation ...so she started to...  write in a blog
 girls' education  give speeches
 democracy  send letters
 ...to express her opinion.
- It was very dangerous so she had to use a...  nickname ...to stay anonymous.
 pseudonym
 secret writing

3. Horrible consequences

- Her life changed ..... on [date] .....
- As she was on her way home from school, a group of ..... entered her school bus. They asked for her name and ..... her in the .....
- Her injuries [blessures] were so severe that doctors did not think she would .....

4. Malala's influence

- People around the world were ..... by her courage:
  - They attended .....
  - They lit [allumer] .....
  - They organized ..... where they were holding up her .....
- All of them demanded .....

5. Malala's motivation : Her fight for .....

For Malala, this cause is important because she thinks that ...

.....
 .....