

LESSON OVERVIEW - [Bilan de l'unité]

NOTION : Myths and Heroes

TOPIC : A Variety Of Heroes

ISSUE : What are the various types of heroes? What do they have in common? What makes them unique and special?

OUTLINE [plan]

Introduction

- a - What is the definition of a hero?
- b - What are the similarities and differences?

PART 1 - A YOUNG HERO - Malala

- a - The story of Malala Yousafzai - An education activist
- b - Why can we consider Malala as a hero?

PART 2 - ANTI-HEROES -Bonnie & Clyde

- a - What is a anti-hero?
- b - Biography of Bonnie & Clyde - "The infamous crime duo"
- c - The Legend of Bonnie & Clyde - From famous outlaws to criminal heroes (music video, etc)

PART 3 - EVERYDAY HEROES - Firefighters and emergency responders

- a - What are everyday heroes? (firefighters, policemen, first responders, emergency services)
- b - Are everyday heroes real heroes? What are their heroic acts?

Conclusion : What defines a hero ? What makes him or her so special ?

DOCUMENT LIST

VIDEO - Report - The story of Malala Yousafzai - An education activist

TEXT - Magazine article - TXT - 8 Reasons Why Malala Should Be Your Hero

VIDEO - Documentary - The Real Story of Bonnie & Clyde

VIDEO - Movie extract - Scene of bank robbery and murder by Bonnie and Clyde

TEXT - Newspaper article - Heroic" firefighter rescues newborn baby

Evaluations:

TEXT : Bonnie & Clyde Getaway Car Description

WRITING : Write a newspaper article about an act of heroism or bravery you have witnessed.